Internet Spokes Models - What's it all about?

I'm sure you've visited a site that seemed boring only to find a person suddenly coming out of nowhere, who speaks directly to you. They seem to be floating on the surface of your web page and they talk to you.

Here's some of the things they can do for you:

- Drive Attention to Special Offers
- Point out Features of the Site
- Make Important Announcements
- Add Compelling Video Messages
- Increase Retention
- Increase Revenues
- Encourage User Participation
- Help or Aid Users
